Tenants: You MUST attach a copy of the notice given to your landlord regarding these issues. Unless the issues listed above are considered life-threatening, the RHA will not schedule a Special Inspection until documentation is provided showing the landlord was notified of these issues and given reasonable time to resolve them.

Please contact me using the email/phone listed below to schedule the inspection.

I understand that due to the time-sensitive nature of this request, the RHA may schedule this inspection over the phone or via e-mail. Written notification is not required; however, the tenant must still be given proper notice before the unit can be inspected.
